

Anil Narula's IAS Study Centre

Answer Key Online Test-6

ANS)

1. D. reverse is true
2. A . it was forced labour during Gupta and later Gupta periods
3. D .it was a collection of articles in Marathi by Sh. Chiplunkar which carried the extremist views like shared by other congress extremist leaders.
4. A . recently largest gold reserves of India, too have been found in Jamaui district of Bihar.
5. A . combination of solar and wind to provide to provide uninterrupted power supply day(sun) and night (wind) .
6. A. Bio-mining and Bioremediation process involves the conversion of old dumpyard material into reusable resources by treating the waste. As part of the method adopted, environmental conditions will be changed to grow microorganisms that will treat pollutants. Biomining of dump sites is typically aided by bioremediation, a unique process that involves microbe-mediated degradation of organic waste carried out by adding bio-organisms that enable composting. The Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) recommends 'bioremediation' for treatment of legacy waste and reclamation of old dumpsites.
7. A . OPEC plus are those countries which are major oil producers and exporters but not members of OPEC. they are not any international organization like OPEC .
8. A
9. D . Reverse are true.
10. B . this is being termed as anti globalisation and anti-free trade
11. A
12. B . its found mainly in sub Himalayan belt from Punjab to Assam , not all over India. And teak is followed by Sal in maximum number of trees.
13. A . Not PARIS but Geneva.
14. B . Not all type of sharks but a few categories of sharks.
15. C